

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR 2015 WINNERS

Presented and administered by the City of Winnipeg's Access Advisory Committee, the Access Awards raise awareness regarding the importance of accessibility and universal design in the City of Winnipeg. Universal design makes life more equitable, safe, comfortable and affordable for everyone, including people with disabilities.

These awards honour projects that incorporate physical access, communication access and/or wayfinding into built spaces in our city.

Leadership Award for the Advancement of Accessible Environmental Design*Canadian Human Rights Museum

Natalie Rogers-Foidart,
Corey Timson and
Dave Noseworthy

East Elmwood Community Centre

Wins Bridgman

Award of Excellence in Accessible
Architectural Design*Canadian Human Rights Museum

Design Lead:
Grant Van Iderstine –
Architecture 49

Physical Access
New Construction*East Elmwood
Community Centre

Design Lead:
Wins Bridgman and Marcella Poirier –
Bridgman Collaborative

Project Owner:
City of Winnipeg

Physical Access RenovationCharleswood Regional Library

Design Lead:
Corey Greenham –
LM Architectural Group

Project Owner:
City of Winnipeg

Physical Access Small ProjectSt. Vital Park Duck
Pond Pavilion

Design Lead:
Travis Cooke –
1X1 Architecture

Project Owner:
City of Winnipeg

Community Recognition Award*Home Street Mennonite Church

Design Lead:
Nate Kasten and Mark Ager –
Ager Little Architects Inc.

Project Owner:
Home Street Mennonite Church
Accessibility Committee